Dear Bill

Many thanks for your kind
note and the address of your literary agent.
I will probably start writing the book shortly after I retire. In fact a considerable portion is already written.

Thanks furthering of me Back.

Dear Vern:

At this stage, you might be in the market for a top literary agent. Mine is Morton Janklow, of Janklow and Traum, 375 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y. 20036, 212-421-1700.

You have a big book in you, and I'm looking forward to reading it. And you're one of the few authors who will be able to handle your own translation for sales abroad.

Best,
